Mrs. George I. Hargrow

Mrs. George I. Hargrow passed away at 10:55 the morning of May 6, 1954. She had been in ill health a number of years, the last few years being confined to her bed.

Elizabeth Jones was born Oct. 8, 1884, at Ipswich, S. D., the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James D. Jones. In 1900 the family moved to Groton. On Oct. 22, 1913, she was united in marriage to George I. Hargrow and residence was continued here throughout the remainder of her life. She had been a member of the Congregational church in Ipswich prior to coming to Groton, and on the occasion of that move, her membership was transferred to the First Presbyterian church of Groton. She was loyal in attendance and active in the interests of her church during the years she was well enough to participate. Mrs. Hargrow's parents preceded her in death, having died in 1915 and 1916 respectively.

Besides her husband, she leaves one sister, Mrs. O. B. (Margaret) Nordland of Jamesport, Mo.; one brother, Milton J. Jones of Los Angeles, Calif.; one uncle, Benjamin Jones of Ipswich, as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

She leaves many friends who will miss her, even though her only contact with them these past years was as they called at her bedside. She maintained a calm, trustful faith in her Lord to the end and was patient in her affliction.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Presbyterian church at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, the Rev. James A. Rice officiating with burial in Groton Union Cemetery. Pall bearers were: Ewald Kuehnert, Earl A. Mueller, Palmer G. Peterson, Ernest Meythaler, Chas. J. Lundberg, and J. J. Warkentin, Aberdeen.

Relatives from away who came for the funeral were: Mrs. O. B. Nordland, Jamesport, Mo.; Milton J. Jones, Los Angeles, Calif.; Benjamin Jones, Ipswich; Mrs. Jennie Jones, Ipswich; Mrs. Liesha Cavanaugh, and Katheryn of Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Steven Hargrow, Winner, S. D., and Mrs. Clara Hargrow, Fairmont, Minn.
